INVITATION

"Scientific Publications in the Scientometric Assessment System" Conference

14th May, 2015

Institute of Aviation
al. Krakowska 110/114
02-256 Warsaw Poland
Conference Room „IKAR”

Organisers:

- "Marketing of Scientific and Research Institutions" scientific quarterly journal
- Scientific Publishing Houses of the Institute of Aviation.

The Conference aims at presenting the role of scientific publications in the scientist and scientific organisation appraisal system. Its purpose is to introduce and familiarise participants with the main systems and indexation databases of scientific publications and the use that can be made of them in the course of building up scientific achievements. Moreover, it is also designed to function as a platform for discussion between authors and publishers in the scope of publishing cooperation.

The meeting is open to staff of publishing houses, scientific directors of research institutions, scientific secretaries, university publishing houses and authors of scientific articles and publications.
